BARNARD COLLEGE

- 9:00-10:00am Registration
- 10:00 – 10:15am Welcome
- 10:15 – 11:00am Life Inside a Barnard Classroom
At Barnard, you'll find a community of passionate women all fiercely dedicated to their academic pursuits. During this panel, faculty, administrators, and current students will discuss studying at a small liberal arts college with connections to a major research institution, the Barnard curriculum, and how Barnard supports students inside and outside the classroom.
- 11:00-11:30am Campus Tours Departures
Depart every 10 minutes
Join us for an hour-long tour of Barnard's campus.
- 11:00am – 12:30pm Residence Hall Tours
Have you ever wondered what a Barnard Residence Hall looks like? Where will you hang your pictures? How much room will you have for your book? Visit one of your Residence Halls and start planning your future bedroom.
- 12:00 – 1:15pm Lunch
Introduce yourself to your future classmates while enjoying a delicious picnic lunch. Staff from Admissions will be on hand to chat and answer questions.
- 1:30 – 2:15pm Why a Women's College in NYC?
As a small liberal arts women's college in New York City, Barnard is a unique and complex place. As a prospective student, it can be hard to imagine what life at a women's college might feel like. Hear from a faculty member, an alumna, and current students about their experiences as members of this special community.
- 2:30-3:30pm A Candid Talk with Admissions and Financial Aid
The first step in the college process is to find your dream school. The next step is to start thinking about how to make that dream a reality. Sit down with representatives from Admissions and Financial Aid, and get all your questions answered.
